The U.S. Embassy in OTTAWA is seeking an individual for employment in CANADA for the position of Financial Management Analyst in the Financial Management Center.

BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

Incumbent is a Financial Management Analyst in the Financial Management Center (FMC) responsible for the formulation, justification, execution and analysis of budgets and financial management plans. The incumbent will perform allotment accounting for the Diplomatic and Consular Program (D&CP) and Overseas Building Operations (OBO). The position must create and furnish analytical reporting and has primary responsibility for funds control of USG appropriations. The position is also responsible for offering advice and submitting proposals impacting financial management plans and decisions. Incumbent also supports the ICASS Financial Management Analyst with the collection and analysis of documentation required for the development of the ICASS framework that is an integral component of the ICASS budget process.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

NOTE: Applicants must address each required qualification listed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item. Failure to do so may result in a determination that the applicant is not qualified.

1. Education: Completion of two years of full time studies in business administration or management;

-OR-

Completion of secondary school.

2. Experience: If completed two years of full time studies in business administration or management: Minimum of five years of experience in financial management with the US Government.

If completed secondary school: Minimum of seven years of experience in financial management with the US Government.

3. Language: Level IV (Fluent) speaking/reading/writing English.

4. Knowledge: Employee must possess a thorough working knowledge of the DOS Standardized Regulations (DSSR), Foreign Affairs Manuals/Handbooks, Federal Appropriation Law, Code of Federal Regulations and other DOS policies, guidelines and procedures related to financial operations. Employee must possess a thorough knowledge of how an Embassy operates and a clear understanding of the internal working of the financial management section and where it fits in the overall organizational hierarchy of the Mission. Incumbent must understand host country laws and regulations, specifically those that have an impact on embassy financial operations such as the application of value added tax, excise tax, etc. Knowledge of generally accepted accounting principles, allotment accounting structure, unit composition, and a thorough understanding of the various job responsibilities within the Embassy and at the constituent posts in order to address and/or solve questions and concerns and provide clarification when requested by the FMO. Incumbent must have a solid foundation in voucher examination and USG accounting practices and understand the cause and effect of each transaction. Incumbent must be able to apply audit standards and implement strong internal controls to ensure accuracy within all budgets.

5. Skills and Abilities: Strong organizational, mathematical and analytical skills are requisite. Additionally, a demonstrated proficiency with the Microsoft Suite, particularly Excel, Word and Outlook is essential.

The incumbent must be dedicated and self-starting, flexible to meet deadlines and commitments, and be able to prioritize duties in accordance with the Mission program goals as they relate to financial management. Being proactive, open minded, versatile and customer service oriented are also key skills required to succeed.

6. Interpersonal Skills: Incumbent must be able to work well in a team environment and be able to effectively and professionally communicate with colleagues, customers and clients. Possessing excellent problem-solving and negotiation skills is also relevant as the position requires the incumbent to work with others to identify, define and resolve issues and/or reach a mutually agreeable outcome. Since the incumbent will often have to meet strict deadlines while facing frequent interruptions, having the ability to maintain a positive attitude while managing and reducing stress in themselves and others is very important.

SELECTION PROCESS

When qualified, applicants who are U.S. Citizen Eligible Family Members (USEFMs) and/or preference-eligible U.S. Veterans are given a preference in hiring. Therefore, it is essential that these applicants make themselves known as having a hiring preference and specifically address the required qualifications above in their application.

HIRING PREFERENCE ORDER:

- (1) USEFM who is ALSO a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (2) USEFM OR a preference-eligible U.S. Veteran
- (3) FS on LWOP

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Management may consider the following when determining successful candidacy: nepotism, conflicts of interest, budget, and residency status.
2. Current OR employees serving a probationary period are not eligible to apply. Current OR employees with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Employee Performance Report (EPR) are not eligible to apply.
3. Current NOR employees hired on a Family Member Appointment (FMA) or a Personal Service Agreement (PSA) are not eligible to apply within the first 90 calendar days of their employment, unless they have a When Actually Employed (WAE) work schedule.
4. The candidate must be able to obtain and hold a security clearance.

TO APPLY

Applicants must submit the following documents to be considered:

1. A cover letter addressing each of the six required qualifications detailed in the job announcement by identifying them and addressing how the applicant meets each of the qualifications.
2. Universal Application for Employment (UAE) (Form DS-174), which is available on our website at <http://canada.usembassy.gov/about-us/human-resources.html> or by contacting Human Resources. (See "For Further Information" above); and
3. Any additional documentation that supports or addresses the requirements listed above (e.g. transcripts, degrees, etc.).
4. Proof of eligibility to work in Canada (e.g., copy of passport, birth certificate, permanent residency card, etc.).

IMPORTANT: Applicants claiming a U.S. Veteran's preference must submit written documentation confirming eligibility (e.g., Member Copy 4 of Form DD-214, Letter from the Veteran's Administration, or certification documenting eligibility under the VOW Act with an expected discharge no later than 120 days after the certification is submitted) by the closing date of the vacancy announcement. If the written documentation confirming eligibility is not received in the HR office by the closing date of the vacancy announcement, the U.S. Veteran's preference will not be considered in the application process. Specific criteria for receiving a U.S. Veteran's preference may be found in HR/OE's Family Member Employment Policy (FMEP).
